

21st WPC PLENARY SESSIONS:

- Plenary 1: Russian petroleum industry perspectives
- Plenary 2: Energy strategies for a growing world
- Plenary 3: The industry's role in promoting development
- Plenary 4: Science and technology: energising the future
- Plenary 5: New frontiers in conventional and unconventional oil and gas
- Plenary 6: Meeting stakeholder requirements: "License to Operate"
- Plenary 7: Sustainable financing of the industry
- Plenary 8: The new producer – consumer balance
- Plenary 9: Aiming towards a perfect record in safety and environment
- Plenary 10: Geopolitical cooperation: ensuring long term energy sustainability
- Plenary 11: Raising the bar on governance and ethical standards

SPECIAL KEYNOTE SESSIONS:

- SP1: Global Launch of the Statistical Review of World Energy 2014
- SP2: Arctic development challenges - partnerships among industry & governments
- SP3: Big data – impact on the industry
- SP4: Technology - The next wave of upstream innovation
- SP5: Reserves and Resources Classification and Reporting: Responding to a Changing World
- SP6: WPC-Energy Economics
- SP7: Inspirational Leadership: Promoting talent in the industry
- SP8: Changing the image of the industry
- SP9: Ministerial RT on the Congress theme of "Responsibly Energising a Growing World"
- SP10: IEA Presentation of 2014 Medium-Term Oil Market Report (MTOMR)
- SP11: Social Responsibility in the oil and gas industry: Earning a License to Operate
- SP12: TBA
- SP13: Youth: shaping the legacy for a sustainable energy future
- SP14: Emergency preparedness and industry cooperation
- SP15: Regulatory Agencies
- SP16: WPC-IGU Gas Forum: The role of LNG in an unconventional world
- SP17: Remediation Initiatives
- SP18: Unconventional resources: economics and regulations