Sergiev Pasad

The town of Sergiev Posad got its name from Saint Serguis, who was born in the neighbouring town of Radonezh and in the middle of the 14th century founded the largest and most famous Russian monastery. That monastery, known as the Holy Trinity-St.Sergius Lavra The place holds the largest library of religious literature, the famous icons, historical and artistic treasures. The architectural complex of Trinity-St.Sergius Lavra was developed in the course of several centuries. The oldest church on its territory is the Holy Trinity Cathedral (1422-1423) famous for its icons painted by the renowned icon painter Andrey Rublev and the 17th century frescoes.

Suzdal

Suzdal is one of the most beautiful ancient cities of Russia, possessing more than 50 examples of church and secular architecture dating from the mid-12th to the mid-18th century. During the tour one can't help getting absorbed in the quietness and tranquility of the town, whose main features are numerous domes of medieval churches and wooden houses of local people.

The highlight of a visit is the Kremlin which contains several streets of houses, some churches, the beautiful Nativity of the Virgin Cathedral, with its blue / gold domes and sumptuous frescoes. Of interest is the Saviour Monastery of St. Euthymius - Suzdal's biggest monastery.

Vladimir

Vladimir is a town with more than 1000 years history. Vladimir, founded as a fortress by Prince Vladimir Monomakh, later became capital of Grand Principality. Situated 180 km to the north of Moscow, it was the capital of ancient north-east Russia. Unique memorials of the 12th century still remain in the town - the Cathedral of St. Demetrius, the Dormition Cathedral and the Golden Gates.
